

I am totally against this proposal. We need to rid the amateur radio license requirement completely of morse code (MC). If hams want to operate MC, let them as long as they do it where MC is now allowed. Thanks